The Court orders that the motion to strike appellant's brief and dismiss appeal is DENIED. We conclude that it is not warranted for appellee to seek to dismiss this appeal, or strike appellant's brief on appeal, at this point after appellee has filed her own brief on appeal and, by the indication of the present motion, has received the complete transcript. We also note that there was nothing improper in appellant availing himself of extensions of time for filing his brief on appeal that were granted by this Court.
